

H & B operates extremely stringent quality control on all its operations, and every finished product conforms up to, and beyond major recognized international safety standards. Hence we can always confidently supply products to the most exacting customers' safety requirements.

Products conform to all the Essential Safety Requirements concerned with the EC directives for the safety of toys. For products supplied to the U.S.A., every item complies to the safety specification requirements of the Standard Consumer Safety Specification of Toy Safety, ASTMF963